20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Green River Basin Advisory Committee gathered and analyzed information and, when necessary, heard public testimony in order to offer advice relating to the aspects and effects of the Bureau's Natural Gas and Oil Program within the greater Green River Basin.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Membership included individuals with expertise, gained through educational or practical experience, in natural gas and oil operations, natural resource management/conservation, or similar disciplines. All members demonstrated a strong ability to analyze and interpret data and information, evaluate proposals, identify problems, and accept the use of collaborative management techniques, such as watershed planning, interagency coordination, management across jurisdictional boundaries, data sharing, information exchange, and partnerships.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Council did not meet in 1997.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Green River Basin Advisory Committee advised the Secretary of the Interior, through the Director, Bureau of Land Management, on matters relating to aspects of the Bureau's natural gas and oil program within the greater Green River Basin. The Committee developed and submitted reports to the Secretary, through the Director, concerning the current status and recommendations to be considered.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All of the council meetings were open to the public.

21. Remarks
